Dear Chris,

Congratulations on the recognition of the Dads Making a Difference Program with the State Excellence Award by the National Association of State Workforce Agencies.

This exceptional program serves as a model for other workforce organizations around the country. The hard work and dedication of the participants is a terrific example for us all. These dads are building not only a better life for themselves and their families, but also a brighter future for Wyoming.

Special thanks to the staff members and the Department of Workforce Services whose hard work makes this outstanding program possible. Wyoming is better because of your commitment to our families.

Bobbi joins me in sending our best wishes.

With warm regards,
