

American Industrial Hygiene Association

Presents

Applying and Utilizing Industrial Hygiene Principles in Healthcare

Educational event dedicated to current trends and emerging issues related to occupational health and safety and infection control in healthcare settings.

Date: Thursday, March 12, 2020

Time: 10:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Location: 815 Cooper Avenue 2nd floor, Glenwood Springs, CO 80211

Agenda:

Current Issues and Trends in Healthcare, an OSHA Perspective (Herb Gibson – Area Director, Denver Area OSHA Office)

Applications for the Industrial Hygienist in Healthcare (Roberta Smith - Director of Worker Health, Axion Health and Cynthia Elwood – Principal Consultant, Associates in Occupational and Environmental Health, LLC)

Ventilation and Contaminant Control (Bill Mele – Senior Engineer, Chemistry and Industrial Hygiene)

Air Quality Monitoring in Critical Care Environments (Cynthia Ellwood – Principal Consultant, Associates in Occupational and Environmental Health, LLC)

What's up with USP? Proposed changes to the various compounding chapters; what and (who knows) when. (Bill Mele – Senior Engineer, Chemistry and Industrial Hygiene)

Health and Safety in Healthcare Roundtable

This educational event is target to individuals who are responsible for:

- Worker health and safety
- Joint Commission compliance
- Facility management
- Human resources
- Worker compensation
- Risk Management
- Handling hazardous drugs
- Compounding pharmaceuticals
- Renovating existing facilities or building new facilities
- Health and safety professionals and industrial hygienists wanting to learn more about current issues and trends in healthcare settings!

$40 AIHA-RMS Members/ $50 Non-Members (Registration includes lunch)

Register by 3/6/2020 at <https://www.aiha-rms.org/events>

Contact Sarah Kaiman with questions (720) 648-7893