

Emergency Treatment

Emergency treatment does not require preauthorization. If the condition is life threatening, or there is rapidly progressing deterioration, the Health Care Provider should proceed with the medically necessary care or treatment.

Revised 2/2018