PROVIDER BULLETIN

TOPIC: Stem Cell Transplantation

Published by Wyoming Workers' Compensation Medical Case Management Unit

February, 2016

Based on review of current literature, the panel determined that the use of stem cell transplantation be considered investigational and not medically necessary for any indications. Any requests for use by a provider will be considered investigational and according to the Wyoming Workers' Compensation Rules & Regulations, Chapter 10, Section 19., (the provider)...will submit to the Division a comprehensive review of the medical literature. This review will include at least two good prospective, randomized studies. All requests for stem cell will be sent for peer review.

Stem Cell transplantation as related to work place injuries is not FDA approved.
